MILLIONAIRE WOOD PLEADS NOT GUILTY IN DYNAMITE CASE

Court Continues Bail of Woolen Trust President and Trial Date Not Set.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.-Millionaire William M. Wood. President of the Amerton Woollen Company, to-day pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging conspiracy to plant dynamite to injure the cause of the textile strikers at Lawrence last winter. The indictment was in six counts. Judge Raymond of the Superior Court, at the request of Assistant District-Attorney Thomas Levels, continued the cash ball of $1,000 which Wood put up when he was

It was expected that two other men milicited in connection with the case, Dennis J. Collins, a Cambridge dog fancier, and a prominent Boston mer-shant whose name has not yet been dis-closed by the District-Attorney, would be brought into court later in the day. The identity of the third man indicted on the conspiracy charge became known to-day when Fred E. Attenux surendered at Police Headquarters. He is a member of F. E. Attenux & Co., dye and color manufacturers, of this city. Atteaux was taken into court shortly after his surrender.

ESCAPED FROM COURT, BUT IS NABBED AGAIN AFTER 40 DAYS' HUNT

James Angelo Back in Cell at Coney Island, but Two Other Fugitives Are Still Free.

After he had been hunted for forty days, James Angelo, twenty-one, of No. 23 Twenty-fifth street, South Brooklyn, one of the three men who escaped from the Coney Island Police Court on July 24, was captured early to-day. He refused to say where als companions are. Angelo was caught by Detectives Weyman, Busby and Michelli at the Wert End depot, at West Seventeenth street, Brooklyn, as he was on his way to Coney Island. The officers took him to the Island and locked him up. The others who escaped were Edwart

Bell, twenty-seven, of No. 114 East Fifty-ninth street, and Thomas Lingodi, nineteen, of No. 234 East One Hundred and Seventh street, Manhattan, Angelo was arrested on a charge of extortion. Charles Hoffman of Sheeps-head Bay Road and West Third street, Coney Island, said he had threatened to kill him unless he returned a girl to Angelo and his friends and paid them $100 for taking her away. Hoffman said Emma Velaire of Newark, N. J., had told him that Angelo and another man had enticed her to a reason at the laiand, and as a friend of her parents he placed her in service with a re-he placed her in service with a respectable family.

Bell had been held for the Grand Jury on a charge of abducting eighteen-year-old Edna Baltimore of No. 240 East One Hundred and Sixteenth street, and when Lingodi was called on the same charge it was found that the three were gene. They had slipped through the baltimore and dropped from a isone. They had supped through the lieutenant's room and dropped from a window at the rear of the court.

RUN DOWN BY A TRUCK.

avy Auto Mangles Arm of Stone-cutter. An automobile truck of the Hunfel Brewing Company rumbled down Third avenue to-day furt as John Creighton, fifty years old, a stonecutter, started to cross the avenue at One Hundred and Forty-third street. Creighton tried to step back on the sidewalk, but stumbled and fell in the path of the machine. The wheels passed over his right arm. Peliceman Carmody, who saw the nucldent, carried Creighton into a saloen on the corner, and using his club and on the corner, and using his club and strap for a tourniquet, stopped the flow of blood from the mangled arm. Dr. Prestly, who came in an ambulance from Lincoln Hospital, said Carmondy's presence of mind undoubtedly had presence of mind undoubtedly had saved Creighton's life. The arm must
